How the silent auction works

When you checked in you were given a bid number that you will use throughout the evening. When you find an item you love, BID ON IT! There is a bidding sheet with each item. Write your bid number on the sheet and the amount you are bidding. Please note the opening bid amount and the required increments listed on the sheet and follow this.

Check back frequently! Keep on bidding!

Listen for announcements indicating a table is closing – that is the warning that you have a final opportunity to be a high bidder. Check on your item(s)! Once a table has closed, circle back to confirm on which items you were the lucky high bidder. When you are ready to pick up and pay for your item(s), go to the check-out area and proceed to the correct line (cash and checks or credit). Inform the friendly check-out volunteer what your bidder number is, and s/he will retrieve all the slips that went with the items on which you were the lucky high bidder. After paying you may return to the auction tables, show your bidder number to one of the auction volunteers and retrieve your items (except for all gift certificates which will be given to high bidders at the check-out area when paying). Thank you!

Bid often and generously and have fun! Proceeds from tonight's auction support the building of homes with qualifying low income families in Hampshire and Franklin Counties.

Letter of Welcome

Welcome to this year's FEAST for Habitat – Pioneer Valley Habitat's annual gathering of volunteers, old and new friends, family, supporters, staff and Board.

The event mirrors the Habitat experience – people, often unknown to one another, gathering for the shared purpose of doing a good deed.

The results of tonight's good deed will be raising money to support Habitat home building projects in Amherst and Greenfield.

In support of this effort, dozens of volunteers have given many hours of time and creative thought to orchestrate this evening, area restaurants and craft beverage vendors generously provide food and drink, area businesses give us auction items and space and all manner of in-kind support, artists donate their talent to produce amazing and whimsical birdhouses, while local musicians perform at no charge – all designed to maximize dollars raised.

Thank you for taking time to attend this year's FEAST. Thank you for your continued support of Habitat through your volunteerism and your giving. Together we will continue to pursue our mission of building simple, sturdy, affordable homes in Hampshire and Franklin counties. Together we build strength, stability and self-sufficiency for our families and our communities.

Bid early, bid often and enjoy the evening!!
